 - All the listed locations geotagged in a single map.
- Transportation
 - There are several options available to transport around, mostly to get from the venue to downtown and vice versa.
 - Walking: 20 minutes of walking will get you to the start of downtown, another 10 minutes will take you to the central downtown area.
 - Scooter: Hopp is a company that rents out electric scooters, if you fancy yourself a daredevil then you can get their app and pay a small rental fee.
 - Bus: Bus number 15 stops close to the venue and takes a fairly straight path downtown and to the office.
 - Taxi: This is generally recommended for the longer trips. The local cab company can be reached at +354 588-5522. A rough estimate of prices would range from 2000-2500 ISK from the venue to downtown.
- Healthcare
 - Iceland's national emergency number is 112

- General Safety:
 - Beware the geese in the area, they are a menace to society.
 - On a more serious note, Iceland is extremely safe and the venue/hotel location even more so.
- Best practices:
 - Tipping isn't a common thing in Iceland. If you want to do it as some extra gesture, then bars usually have tipping pot or you can pass a tip to a waiter who was particularly awesome.
 - Cash is very uncommon here; Card is accepted everywhere with no minimum cost.
 - Weather in Iceland in May is around 6C(43F) but can go as high as 10-12C(50-53F).
 - Good comfortable shoes and a nice base layer and a Parka or water and windproof jacket are recommended.
 - Hat, gloves, and good socks are also highly recommended if you aren't used to the cold or are exploring the natural beauty of Iceland.
- Local sayings:
 - Skál(Scowl) means cheers.
 - Takk means thanks.
 - Hæ (Hi) means hi.
 - Já means yes.
 - Nei means no.
